

Overseas Travel - (1 July 2018 to 30 June 2019)*Department for Innovation and Skills Public Sector Employees

No. of Travellers	Destination	Reasons for Travel	Total Cost
1	Tel Aviv, Jerusalem (Israel) & Paris (France)	Participate in the Australia-Israel Chamber of Commerce delegation to gain a better understanding and insight into the transformative evolution of Israel from a barren desert into an innovative ecosystem.	18,264
1	Hamburg (Germany) London (England) & Paris (France)	Accompany Team Defence Australia and Defence SA in a trade mission to Europe to support the development of opportunities for local industry and conduct investment attraction.	13,976
1	San Francisco & Los Angeles (USA)	Accompany and represent the Premier at key formal events, including G'Day USA. Attend meetings with key stakeholders in the film, innovation and space industry sectors. Travel to and from the USA was self funded - only internal flights within the USA and transportation funded by DIS.	1,686
1	San Francisco & Washington (USA)	Represent the South Australian Government on the Austrade Australian Cyber Security Mission to the USA to advance South Australian Cyber Security capabilities.	9,330
1	Guangzhou and Shenzhen (China)	Support of Study Adelaide's Destination Adelaide Events in Guangzhou and Shenzhen with promotion of General Skilled Migration pathways requiring state-nomination.	5,470
1	Tel Aviv (Israel)	Attend the Australia-Israel Chamber of Commerce Trade Mission to further develop the understanding of the Israeli Innovation Ecosystem, and to meet with a range of start-up companies, incubators/co-working spaces and venture capital investors.	18,700
2	London, Sheffield (UK)	Gain a deeper understanding of UK government policy and programs for innovation and entrepreneurship, and apply relevant learnings to SA Government policy; evaluate market entry options for SA start-ups in the London/European ecosystem; visit Sheffield Advanced Manufacturing Research Centre to support the relationship with Flinders University for its research centre proposal; and, Promote Lot Fourteen and FIXE.	23,122